

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA
MONROE DIVISION

Quentin McConnell

CIVIL ACTION 3-04-0940

VERSUS

U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE ROBERT G. JAMES

Commissioner of Social Security

U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE JAMES D. KIRK

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION ON ATTORNEY FEES

In this case, plaintiff asks the court for an award of attorney's fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. 2412(d), hereinafter "EAJA" [Doc. # 13]. The government's position in this case was not substantially justified and the government has filed no objection to the award of attorney fees.

The EAJA provides in relevant part that the amount of fees awarded "shall be based upon prevailing market rates for the kind and quality of the services furnished, except that . . . attorney fees shall not be awarded in excess of $125.00 per hour unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living . . . justifies a higher fee." §2412(d)(A)(ii). Plaintiff asks the court to award a rate of $125 per hour and $55 per hour for paralegal time. He attests that 11.8 hours were spent as attorney and 12.4 as paralegal.

The $125.00 rate can certainly be exceeded if the court determines that a higher fee is justified by inflation. However, "a district court, in its discretion, may determine that a fee below the established ceiling is a reasonable attorney's fee award based on the facts of a particular case." Hall v. Shalala, 50 F.3d 367, 370 (5th Cir. 1995). In other words, the court is not required to use the maximum inflation adjusted rate or even to award the statutory rate. The rate to be applied is to be based upon prevailing market rates subject to a statutory cap; the cap is not the baseline.

Some courts have ordered that the full inflation-adjusted fee be awarded in all cases. See Sandoval v. Apfel, 86 F.Supp.2d 601, 614 (N.D. Tex. 2000). Others have ordered that the $125.00 amount is the norm. Hasni v. Reyno, 2001 WL 128310 (E.D. La. 2001). This court has no general order in place on the issue, but the judges in this district have awarded $125.00 per hour without enhancement for inflation with few exceptions, finding that, in the relevant legal communities, $125.00 per hour is a reasonable fee.

I find that, in this case in the relevant legal community, a fee of $125.00 per hour is a reasonable attorney fee and serves the goals of the EAJA by helping to ensure an adequate source of representation in social security appeals and minimizing the cost of that representation to the taxpayers. See Hall, 50 F.3d at 369. The award also serves to maintain consistency among the judges in this district. See this court's ruling in Money v. Barnhart, #1-1252, WDLA, Monroe Division, August 15, 2003.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, IT IS RECOMMENDED that attorney's fees in the amount of $2157.00 and costs in the amount of $150 be awarded and ordered paid.
